*I AM HUMAN:
I AM CONFUSED,
BEWILDERED WITH LIFE.*

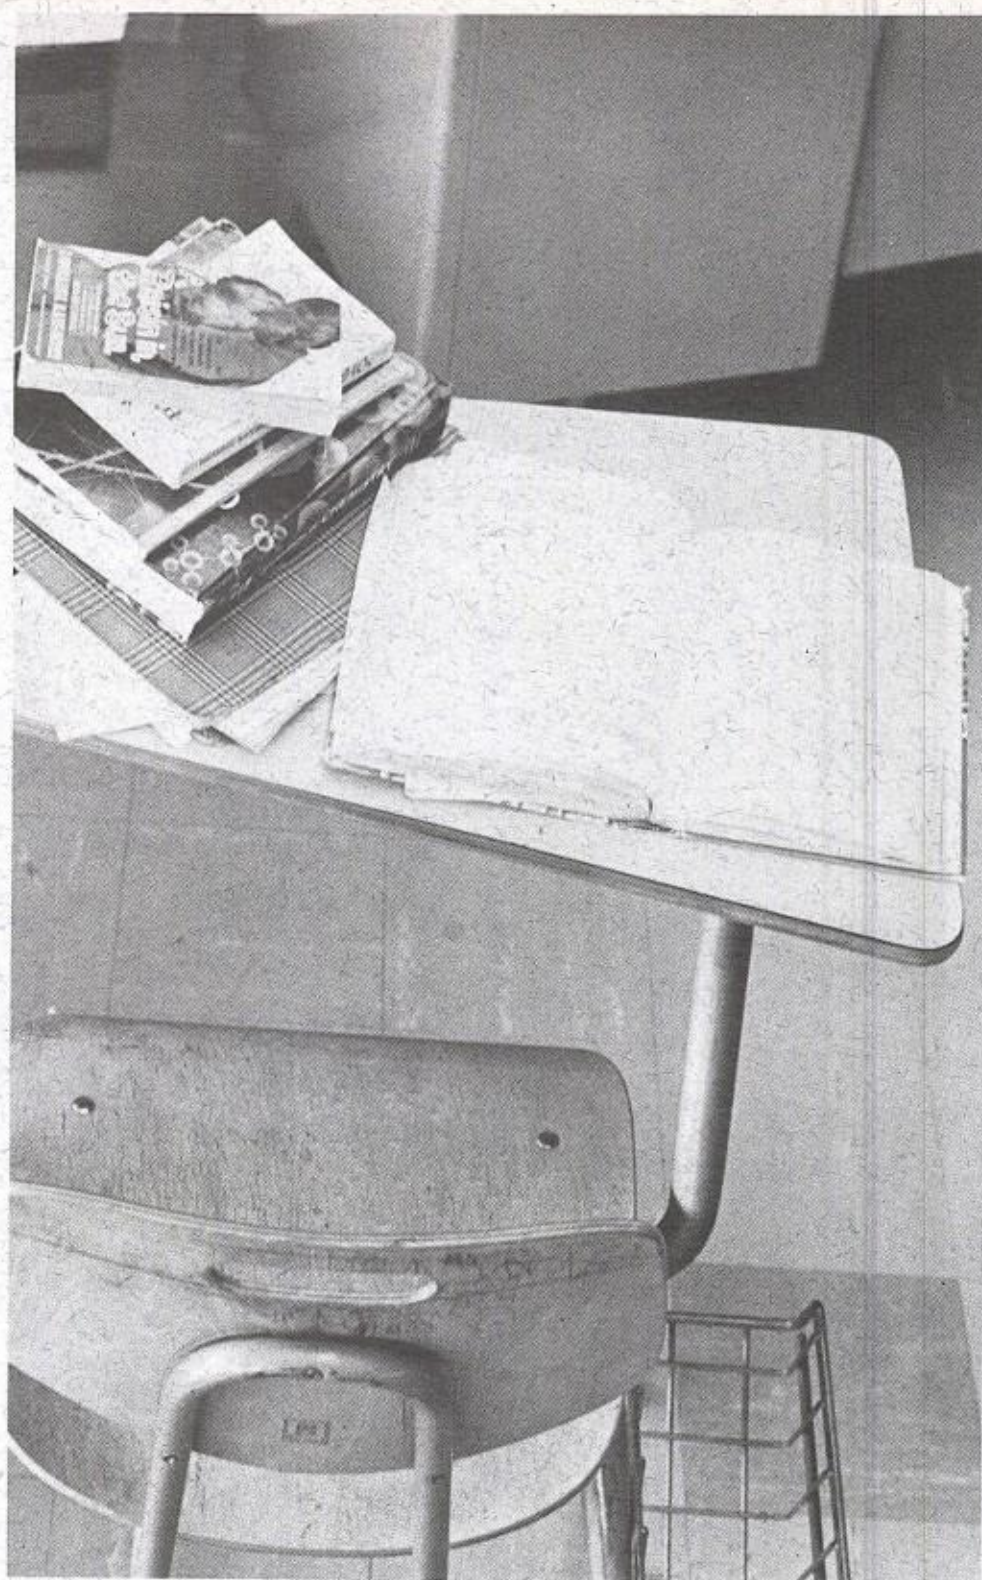

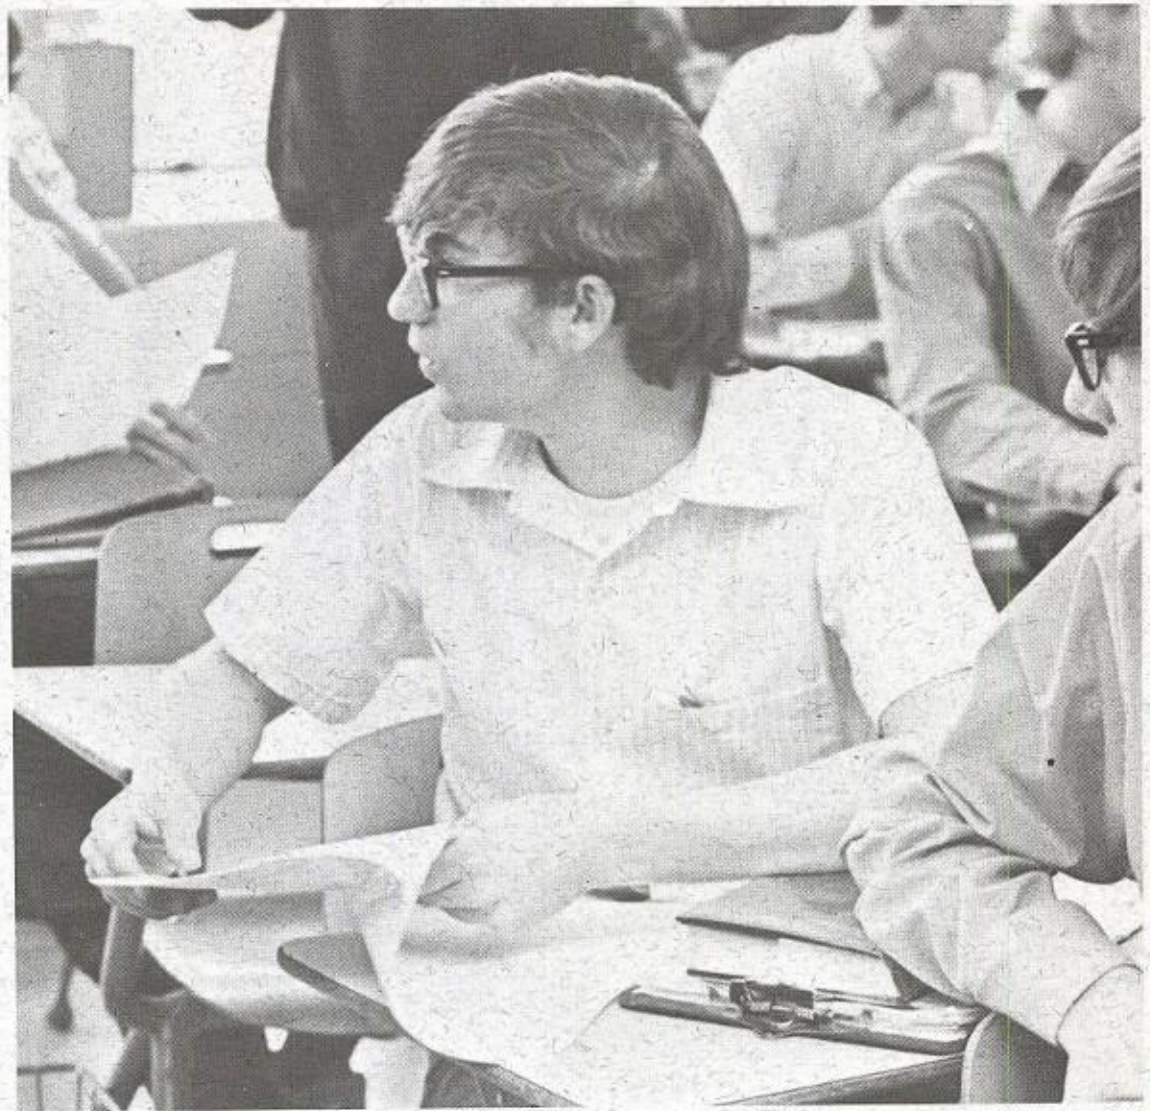

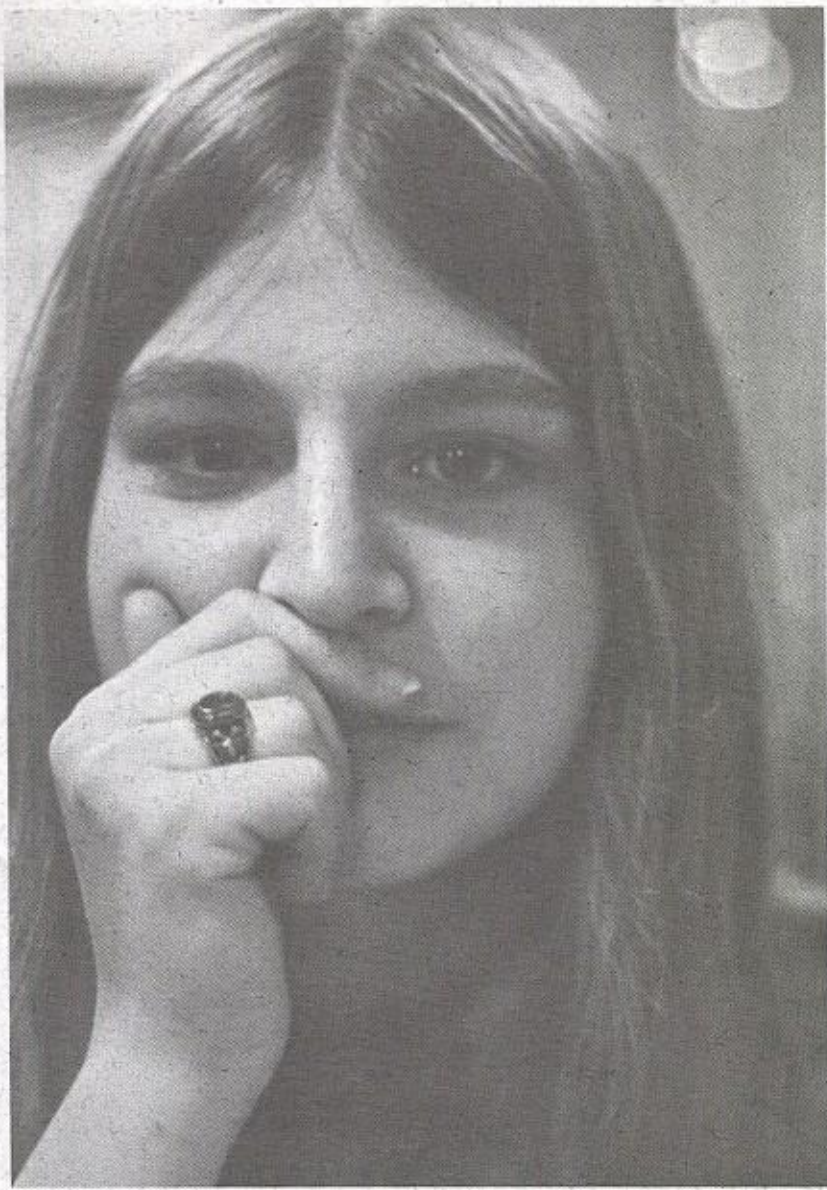

I AM PART OF MANY THINGS, A WHOLE OF NOTHING.

*I AM FREE, SURROUNDED BY LOVE.
I HUNGER FOR LEARNING; BUT
WHEN THE FOOD IS THERE I PUSH IT AWAY.*

*I CAN DREAM BETTER THAN I CAN ANALYZE; MY IDEALS SURPASS MY INSIGHT.
MY AMBITIONS FLAME MIGHTY, EACH
ONE BRIGHTER THAN THE LAST.*

*I LOOK AT MOST PEOPLE,
AND I FEAR
TO GROW UP;
I LOOK AT A FEW PEOPLE, AND
CAPTURE
ONE
INFECTIOUS
THEIR WISDOM.*

I FEEL LIFE AS A KEEN BLADE AT MY HEART: EMOTION IS MY PERSECUTION AND JOY.

*I AM ALIVE . . .
MOST ALIVE WHEN I CAN LAUGH UNTIL THE
TEARS COME, OR CRY UNTIL THEY COME NO MORE.*

COMPASSION
THAT MELTS
ME ON A SONG'S
UNRESTRAINED
FEELING . . .
THEY ARE SO
NEARLY AS ONE.*

*I AM PURE, BUT PURE WHAT?
I AM SIMPLE, BUT SIMPLE WHAT?
I AM IMPATIENT BECAUSE LIFE IS STATIC AND STUBBORN;
I EXULT IN CHANGE.
I AM SO REBELLIOUS BECAUSE I AM SO CONFINED,
EVER IN LOVE.*

I AM COCKY, BUT INSIDE I AM HUMBLE.

I AM CANDIDNESS: JOY, SORROW, PLEASURE IN A GLANCE.

*EXPERIENCE CALLS ME TO A REALM OF LIMITATION:
IDEALS HOLD ME BACK:
THE WORLD I KNOW YET HAS NOT BOUNDS;
BUT FOR MY DREAMS WHICH LEAP BEYOND
THE HORIZON AND THE SKY.*

*I CANNOT GRASP,
ONLY REACH AT LIFE'S ELUSIVE THREADS.*

The Wiser Ducks made their biggest impression on the student body during the homecoming parade. Following quacker tradition, the ducks boarded a pick up truck and serenaded the procession throughout Trotwood. "Remember When" people would gaze at the sight of a car driving by? The winning float (for the third consecutive year by the class of '71) was a scale replica of a Model T Ford with turning wheels, backfiring engine, and an old fashioned horn. Behind the car was a dog, eagerly chasing after it.

The half-time activities consisted of crowning the Homecoming King - Mike Gayman and Queen - Peggy Kearney.

A suspense thriller by Agatha Christie involves the lives of ten people. The victims are invited to a party on an island by an anonymous Mr. U. N. Owen, where threats on their lives are made from a hidden record. The people are murdered one at a time until only a few remain. This leads to a climactic ending full of thrills and excitement.

Ten little Indian boys going out to dine; one choked himself and then there were nine.

Nine little Indian boys sat up very late. One overslept himself and then there were eight.

Eight little Indian boys traveling in Devon; one got left behind and then there were seven.

Seven little Indian boys hunting for sticks; one chopped himself in half and then there were six.

Six little Indian boys played with a hive; a bumble bee stung one and then there were five.

Five little Indian boys going in for law; one got in Chancery and then there were four.

Four little Indian boys going out to sea; a red herring swallowed one and then there were three.

Three little Indian boys walking in the zoo; a big bear hugged one and then there were two.

Two little Indian boys alone with a gun; one shot the other and then there was one.

One little Indian boy left all alone; he went and hanged himself and then there was none.

"Christmas Assembly"

What did you celebrate during December? Hannukkah?

Christmas? No matter what you celebrate or how you like to do it, the fact remains that not everyone enjoys the holidays the same way. That is why, this year, the Christmas assembly consisted of two prevalent and different ideas of the holidays.

For a musical voyage into the depths of the season, we enjoyed the lovely sounds of the T.M. Varsity Choir under the talented direction of Mr. Zimmerman.

From the drama department, under the wise and discerning eye of Mrs. Unger, emerged a bit of creative genius entitled "A Sesame Street Christmas." This was both "brilliantly adapted and directed" by David Crum.

Skits included in the program were, "The Cookie Monster Visits Santa," "Christmas Morning with Bert and Ernie," "Big Bird Finds Happiness," and "The Sesame Street Christmas Song."

Madison Minstrels 1971

The 115th performance of the Madison Minstrel, under the direction of Mr. Ward Zerkle, marked its 27th year with selections from CAN CAN, THE MUSIC MAN, MATCHMAKER, and BEN HUR.

THIS YEAR'S END MEN:

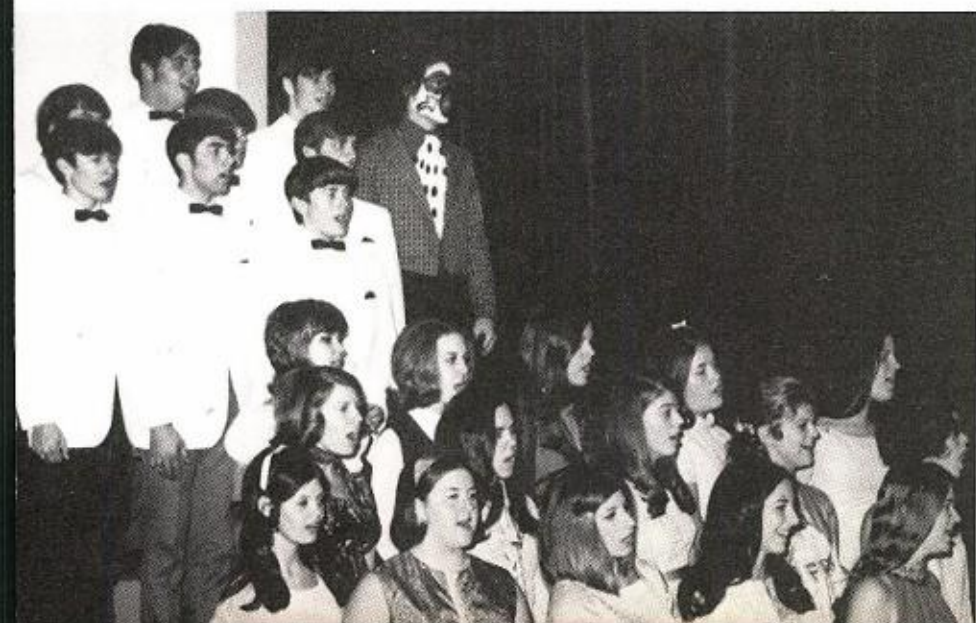

Mr. Interlocutor - - - - - MIKE UPDIKE

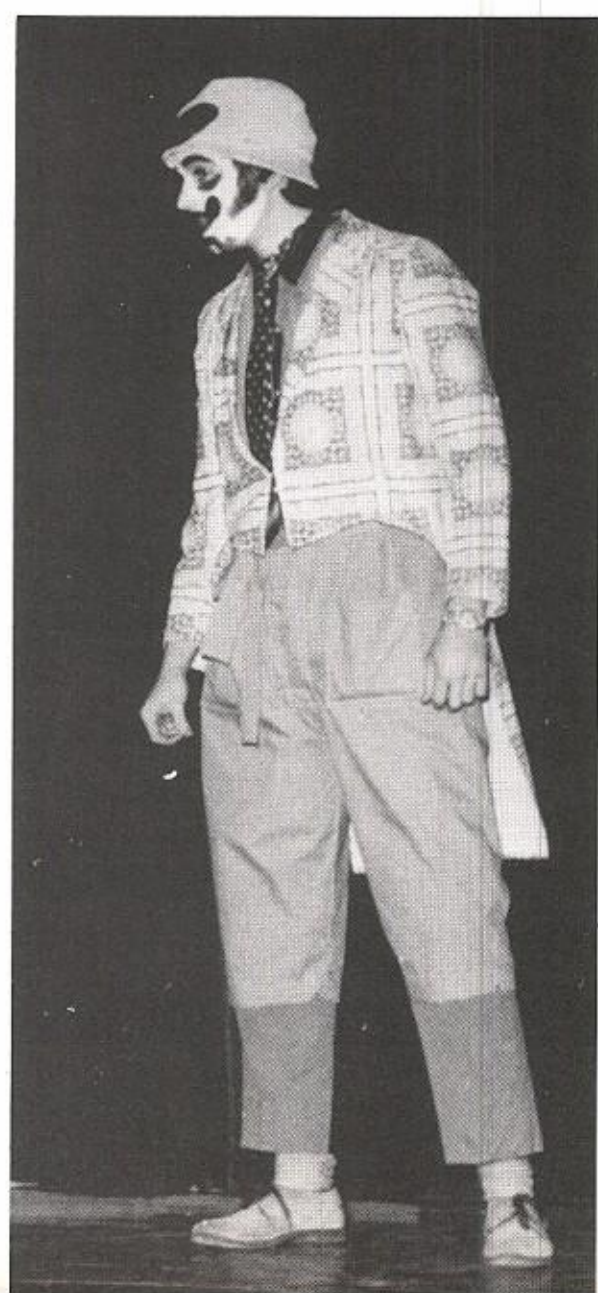

A Little Bit o' Crum - - - - - DAVID CRUM

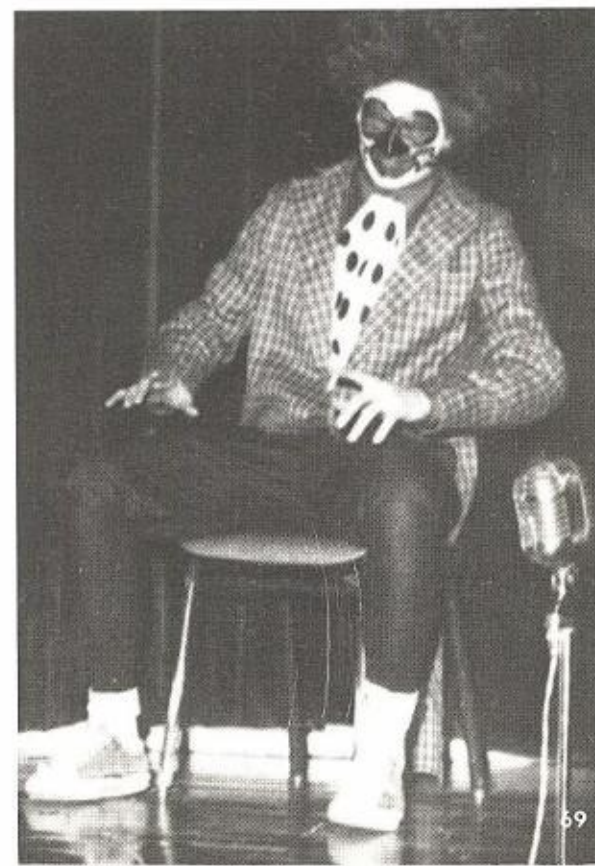

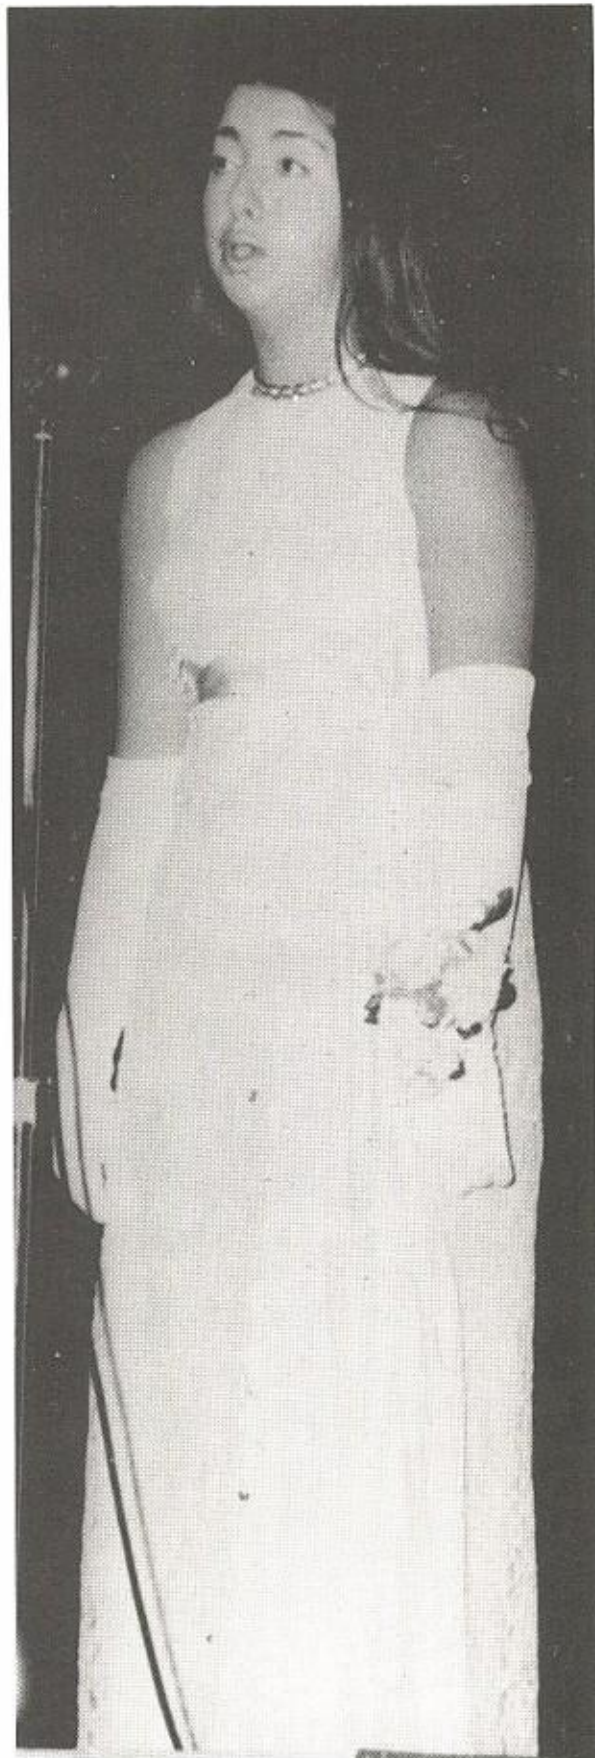

Boswell T. Thudpucker, III - - - - - MIKE LANDIS

Clarence P. Clutchrider - - - - - JACK HEMELGARN

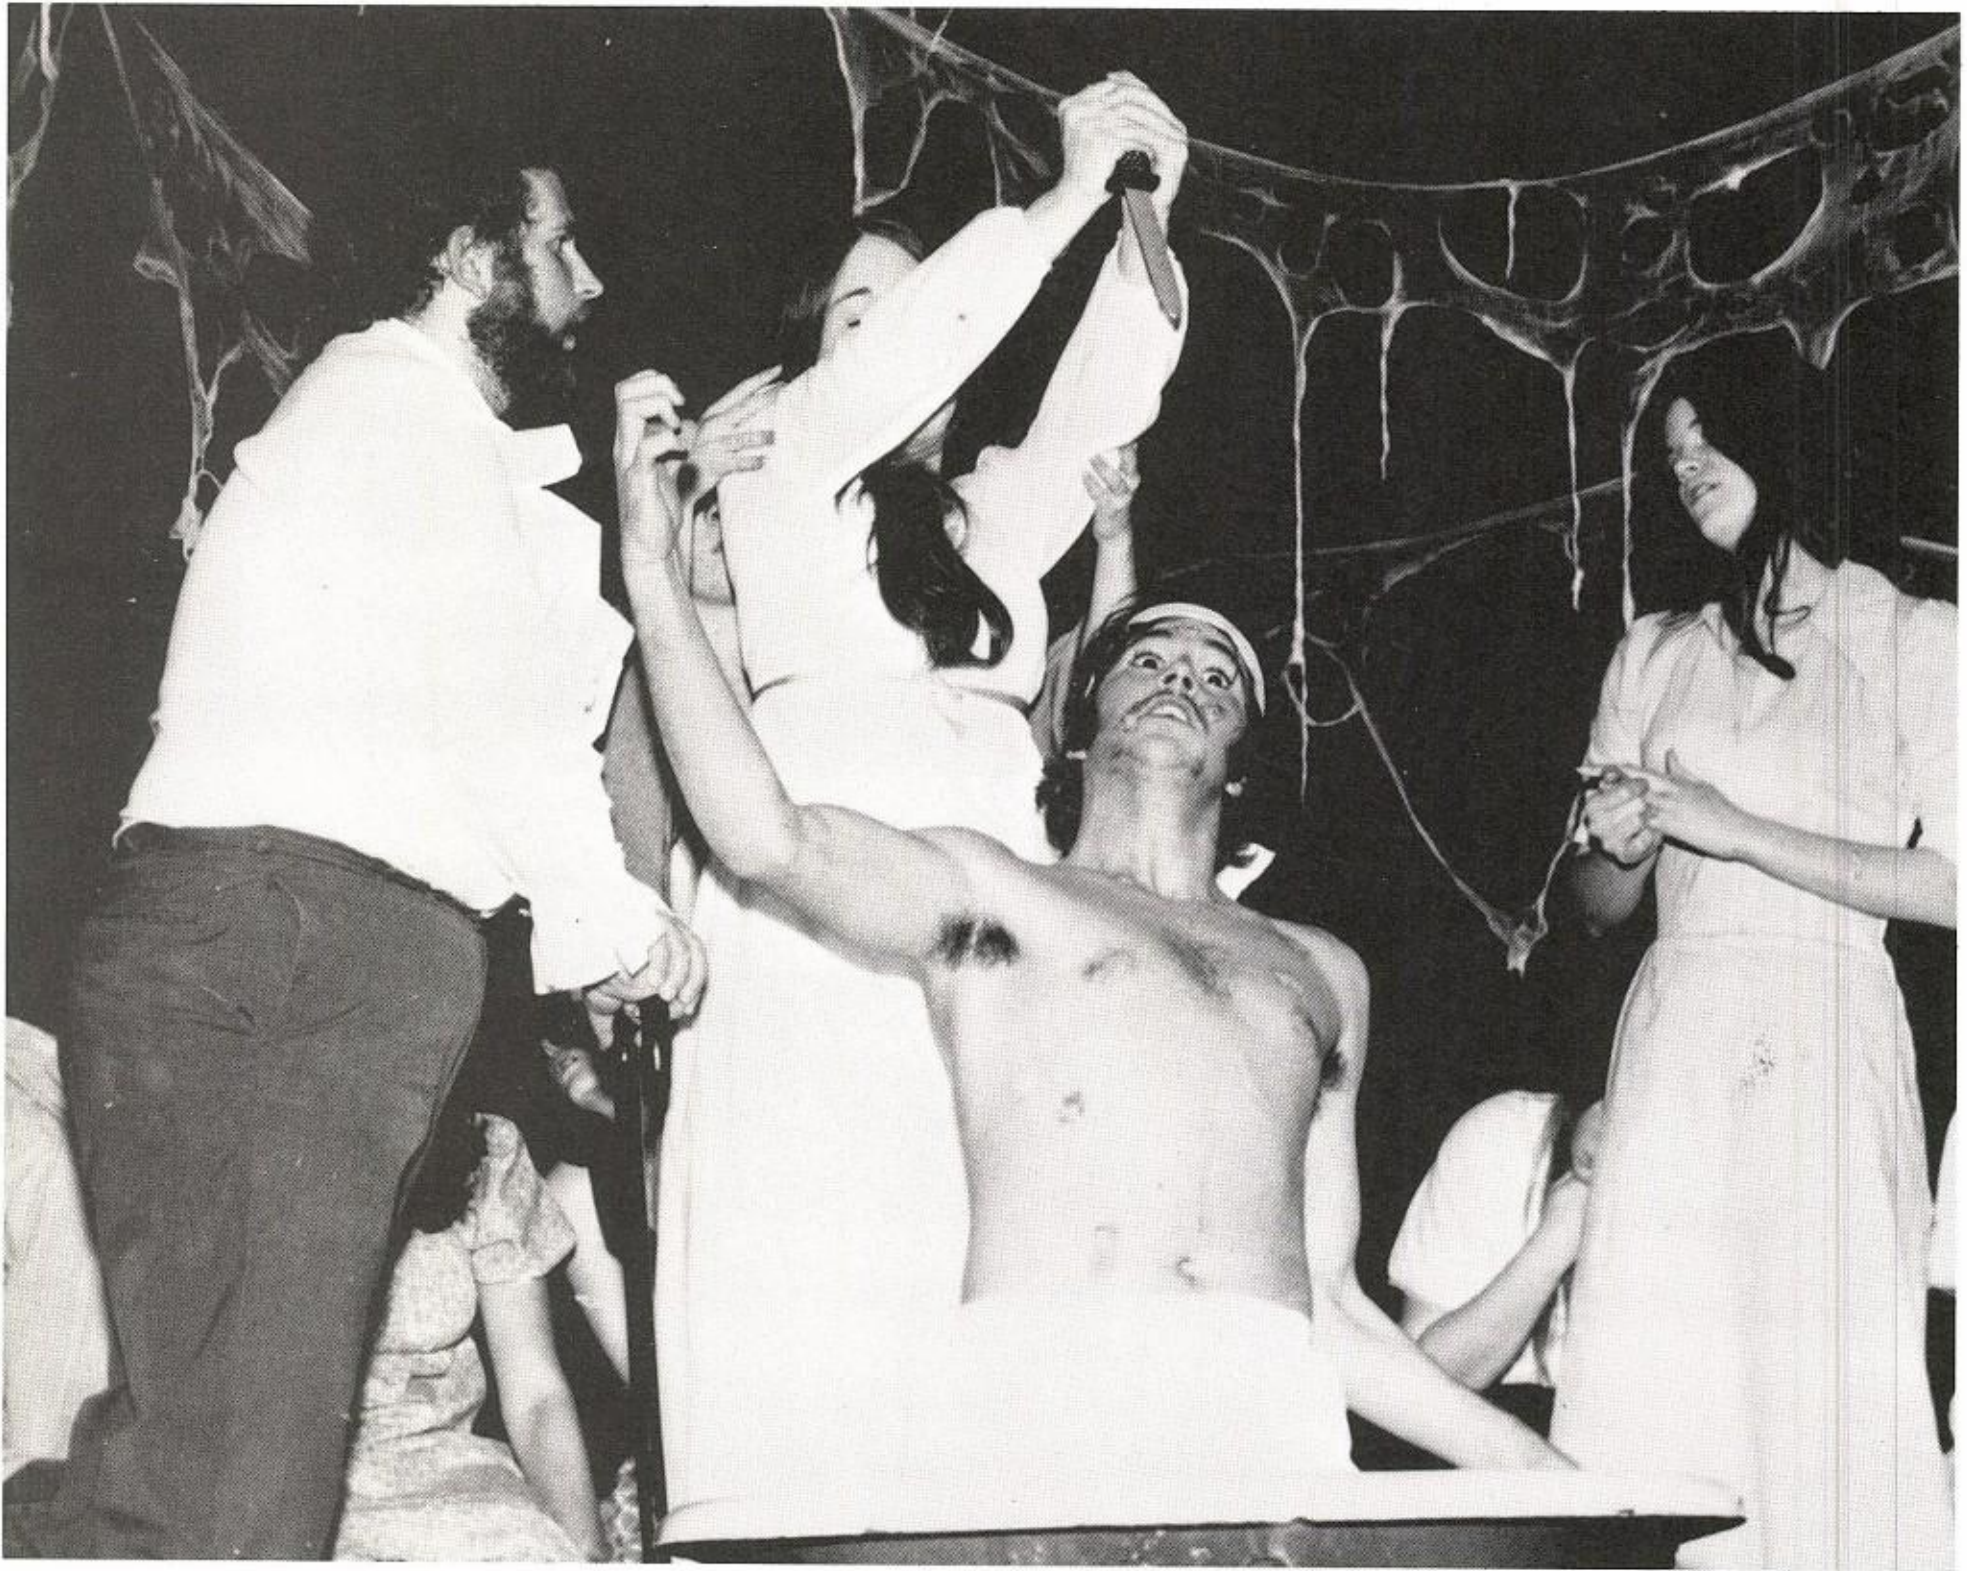

Hector Rectomy - - - - - WARD BROOKS

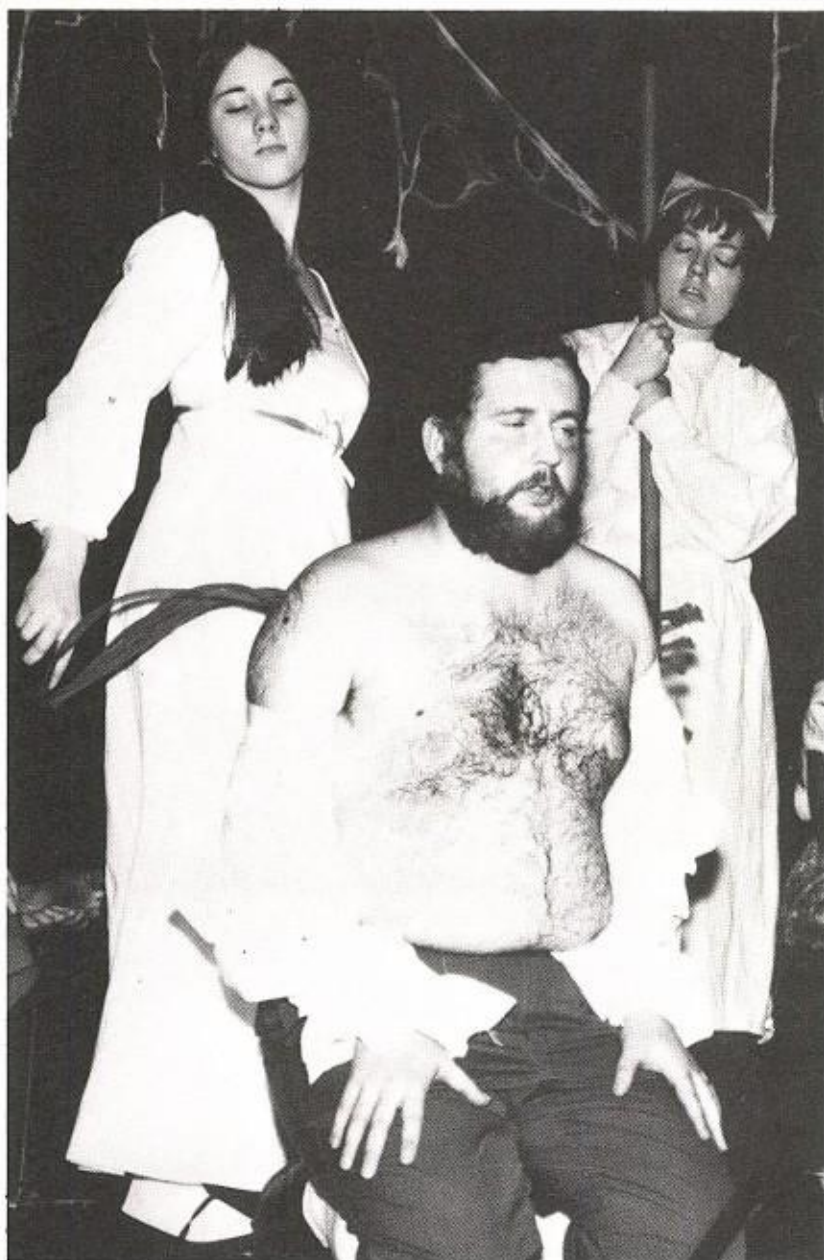

Marat/Sade

"Fantastic ... best thing ever done here."

- L. Rice

For today we live in far different times
We have no oppressors, no violent crimes
And although we're at war, anyone can see
It can only end in victory.

"Excellent ... it was amazing that high school students could put on such a production by themselves."

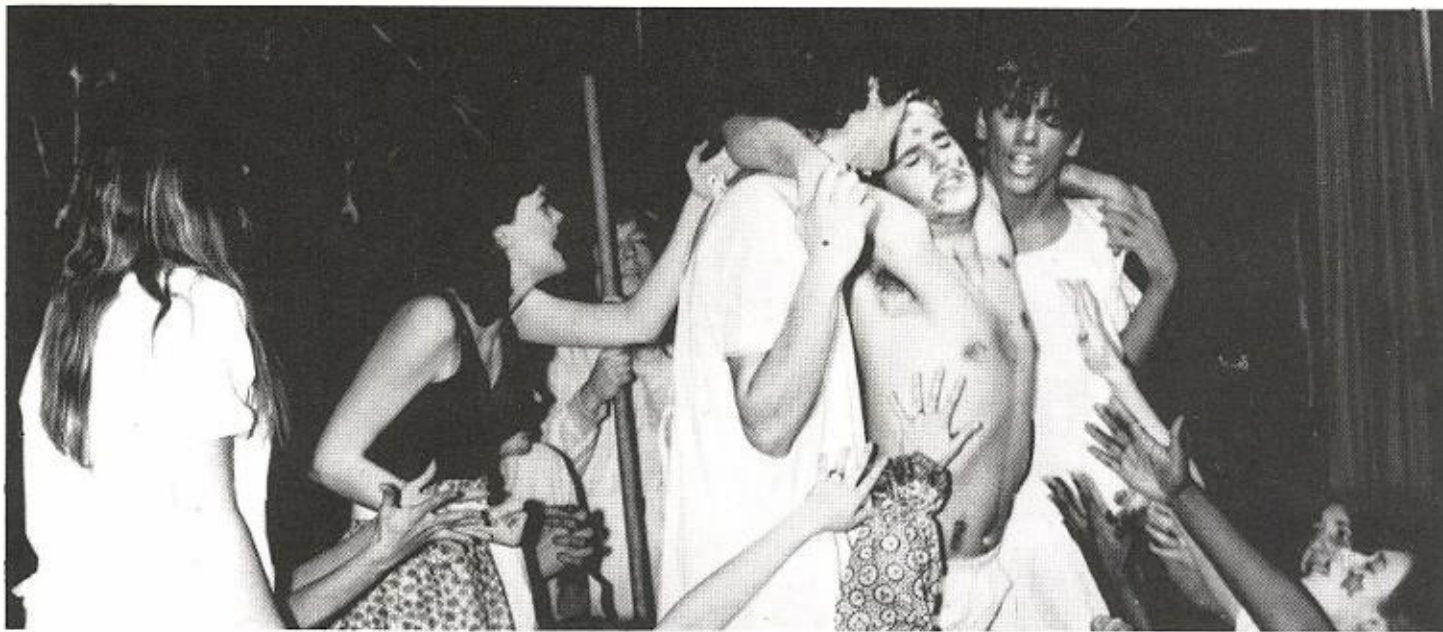

- C. Murdock

"If most have a little and few have a lot
You can see how much nearer our goal we have got
We can say what we like without favor or fear
And what we can't say we can scream in your ear."

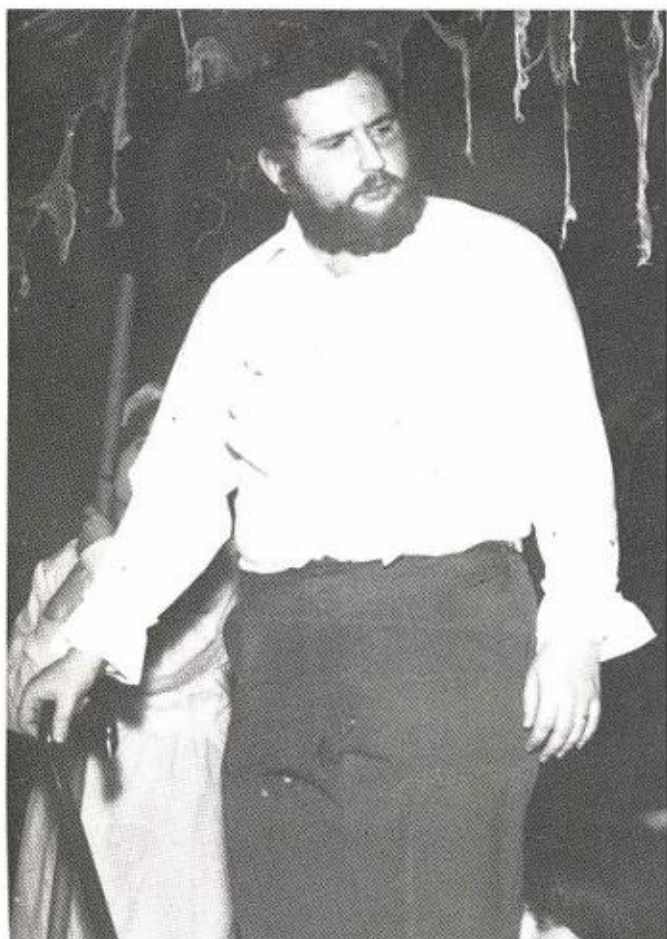

"If our performance causes aggravation
Please swallow down your indignation,
And please remember that we show
only those things which happened long ago
Men of that time; now demised were primitive
We are more civilized."

"Exceptional ... best student non-professional production I've ever seen. I found it very draining physically and mentally as an audience."

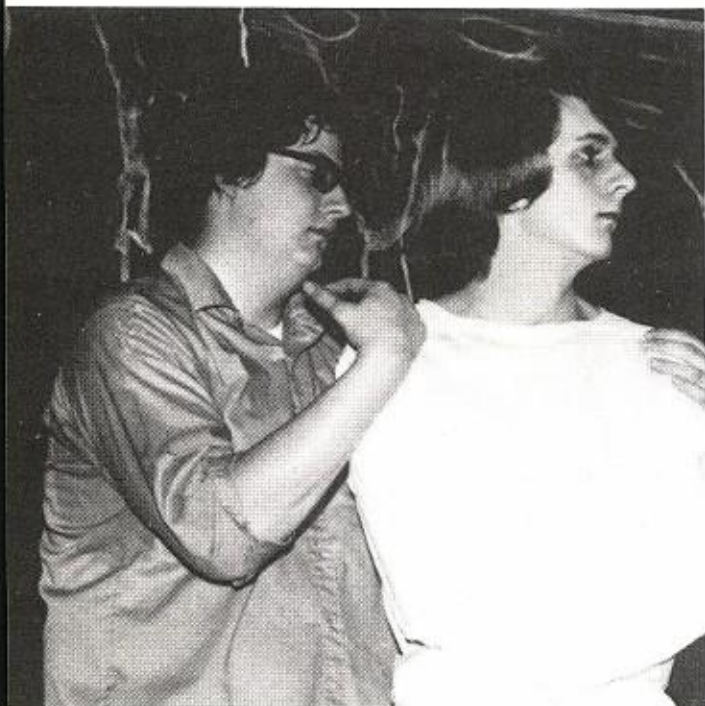

- J. DuBro

"I was moved ... a unique, emotional experience in theater ... each character deeply motivated in his role ... EXCELLENT."

- E. Unger

Marat, can't you see this patriotism is lunacy
Long ago I left the heroics to the heroes
And I care no more for this country than for any other country.

"Very professional for a high school production ... unbelievable."

- M. Vaccariello

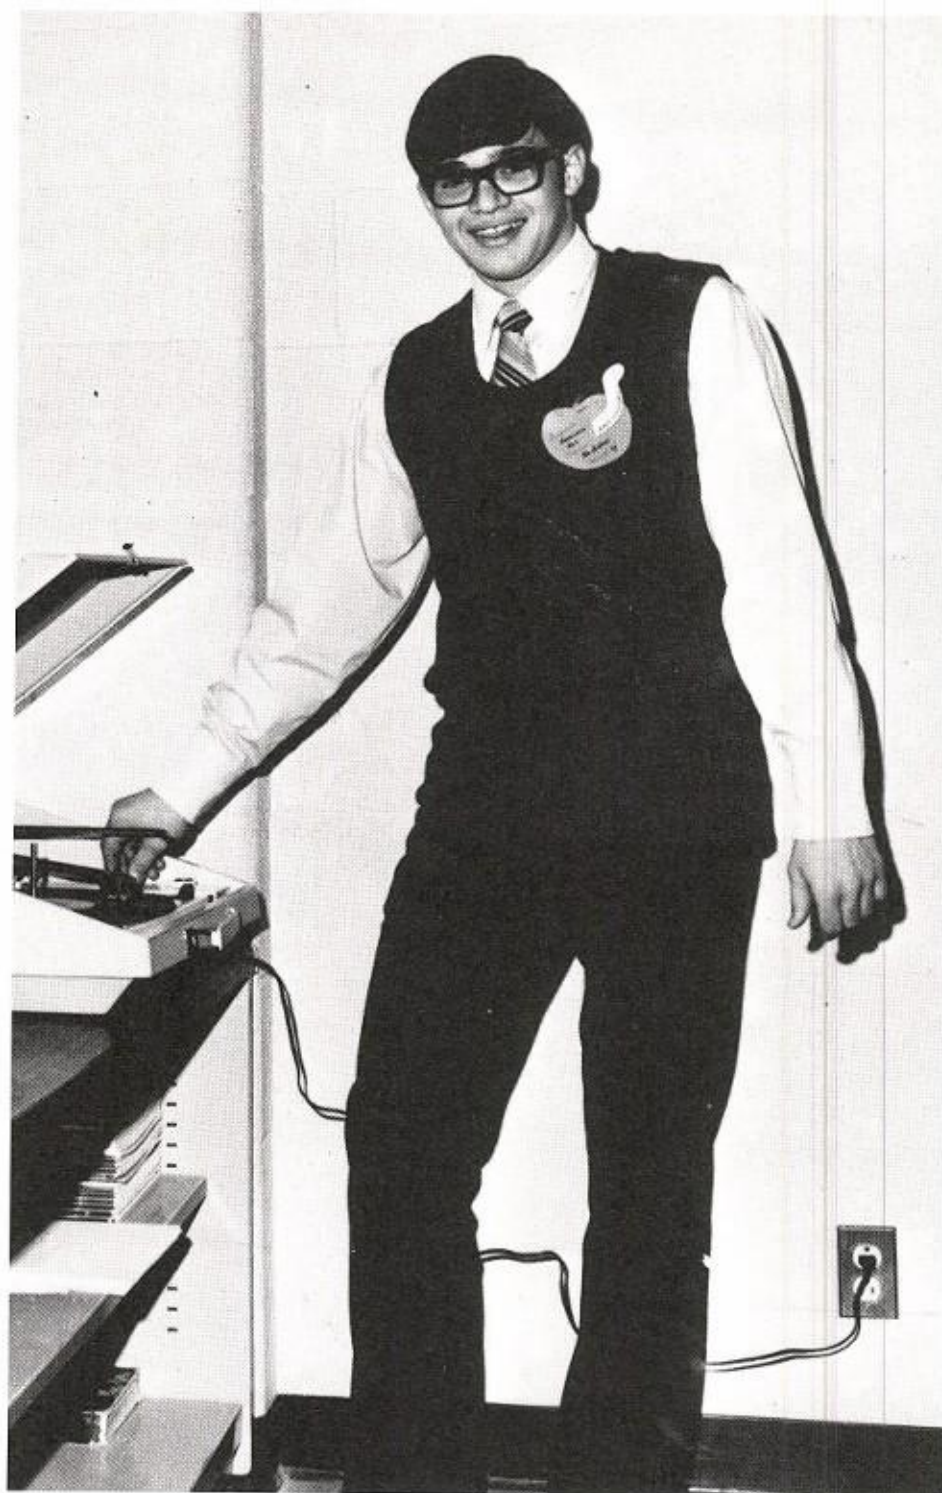

"Total involvement was apparent with all of the characters ... it was a great play."

- K. Bobo

"To mount a play of this scope demands depth of talent and sustained acting far beyond the capabilities of the usual high school performers. The hours upon hours of student effort and the positive determination of the young director produced startling theater. In spite of the deletion of an important character and the rephrasing of a few choice passages, the impact of the first student-only production (one exception in casting noted) deserves superlatives."

- L. Keith

The Student-Teacher day opened with a breakfast in the cafeteria on the morning of March 30, 1971. It was sponsored by the Student-Union, and the teachers gave up a day in every class to one of their students who prepared the lessons.

Fashion Show

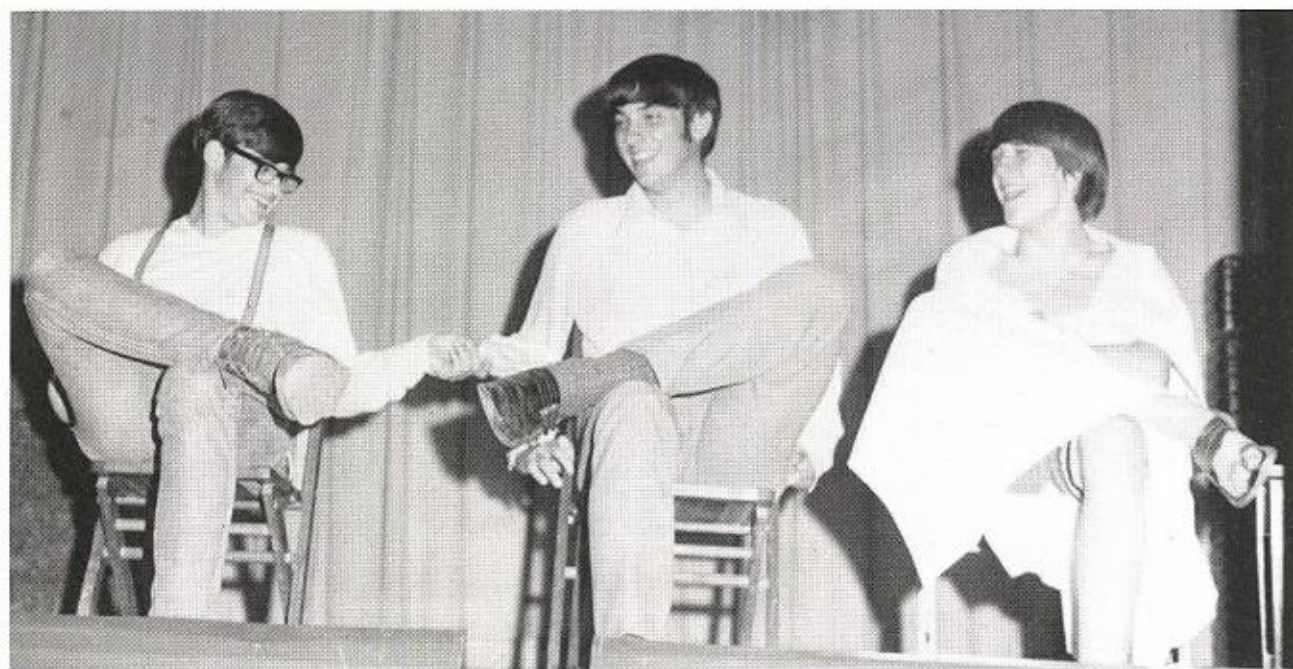

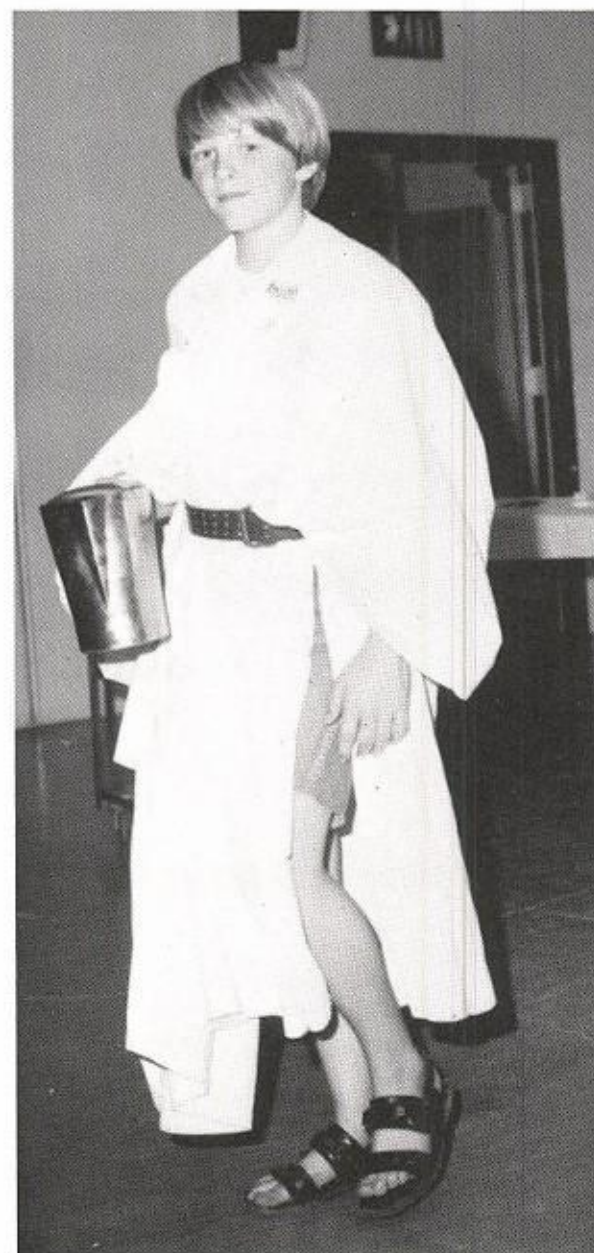

The 1971 Trotwood-Madison fashion show was sponsored this year by the Home-Economics department, with Mrs. Patton in charge of the show. The outfits in the show were made and modeled by the girls in home ec. classes as illustrated in the pictures above.

Irene Noble and Chuck Large were voted as best dressed Romans at the Latin banquet which was held April 22 at the Trotwood Church of the Brethren. There were approximately one hundred guests at the EPULAE.

"This Was Vaudeville"

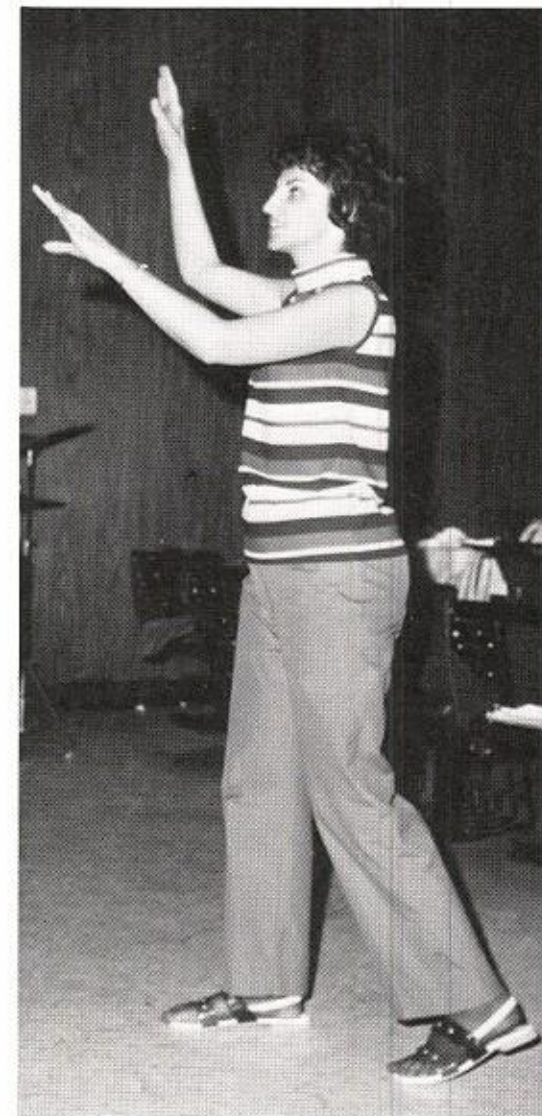

DIRECTORS:
Mrs. Eleanor Unger
Mike Mathews - Asst.
David Crum - Student

The spring play this year, "This was Vaudeville," consisted of two acts from old time theater. The first act was a Vaudeville set containing acts and skits very similar to those of that time. The second act was a musical melodrama called, "No, No, A Million Times No." The hosts of the first act were Jim Edge and David Crum. Guest appearances ranged from Curly McDimple to a Barber Shop Quartet. The Melodrama was a story of a simple farm girl who went away to the city for education but came back quite afraid of everyone because of her hideous encounter with the villain in the play, Stafford Badman. The climax of the play was when the hero Noble Hart won the heart of Nellie forever.

Character portrayal by everyone in the play was well-sustained and Vaudeville was enthusiastically revived for two nights.

*1971 Junior-Senior Prom
"Kaleidoscope"*

Midnight, the crowning hour for the 1971 Prom King and Queen, arrived amid the unusual surroundings of the Salem Mall. Perched precariously on the blonde hair of Queen Van, the fur and velvet crown slid backwards into the fountain. Wringing and shaking removed enough water so that the crown could be restored to its intended position and the celebration continued.

Football '70

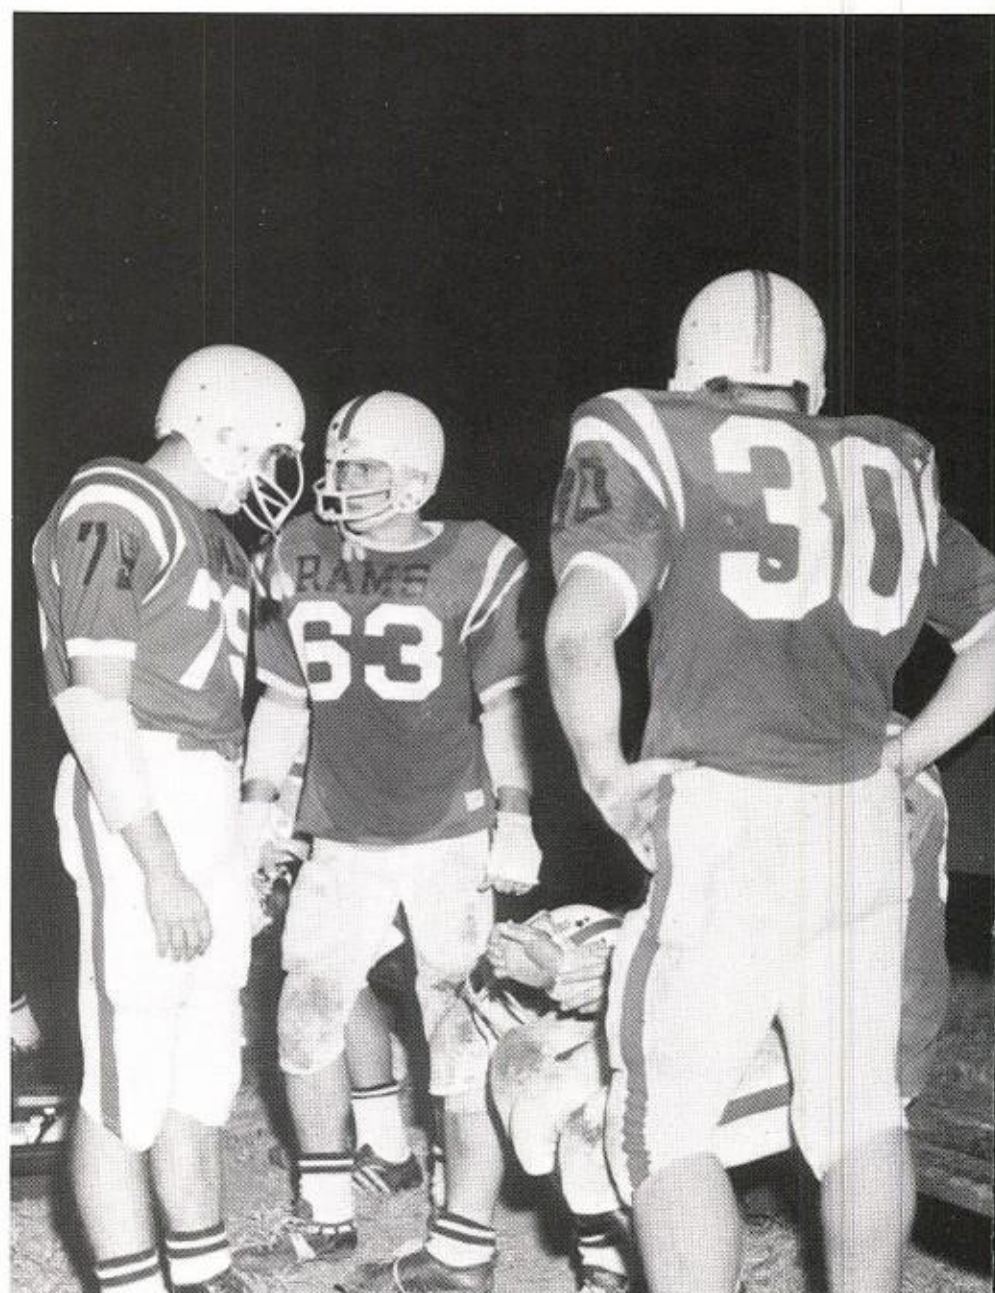

The 1970 Rams are seen kicking off during an exciting year.

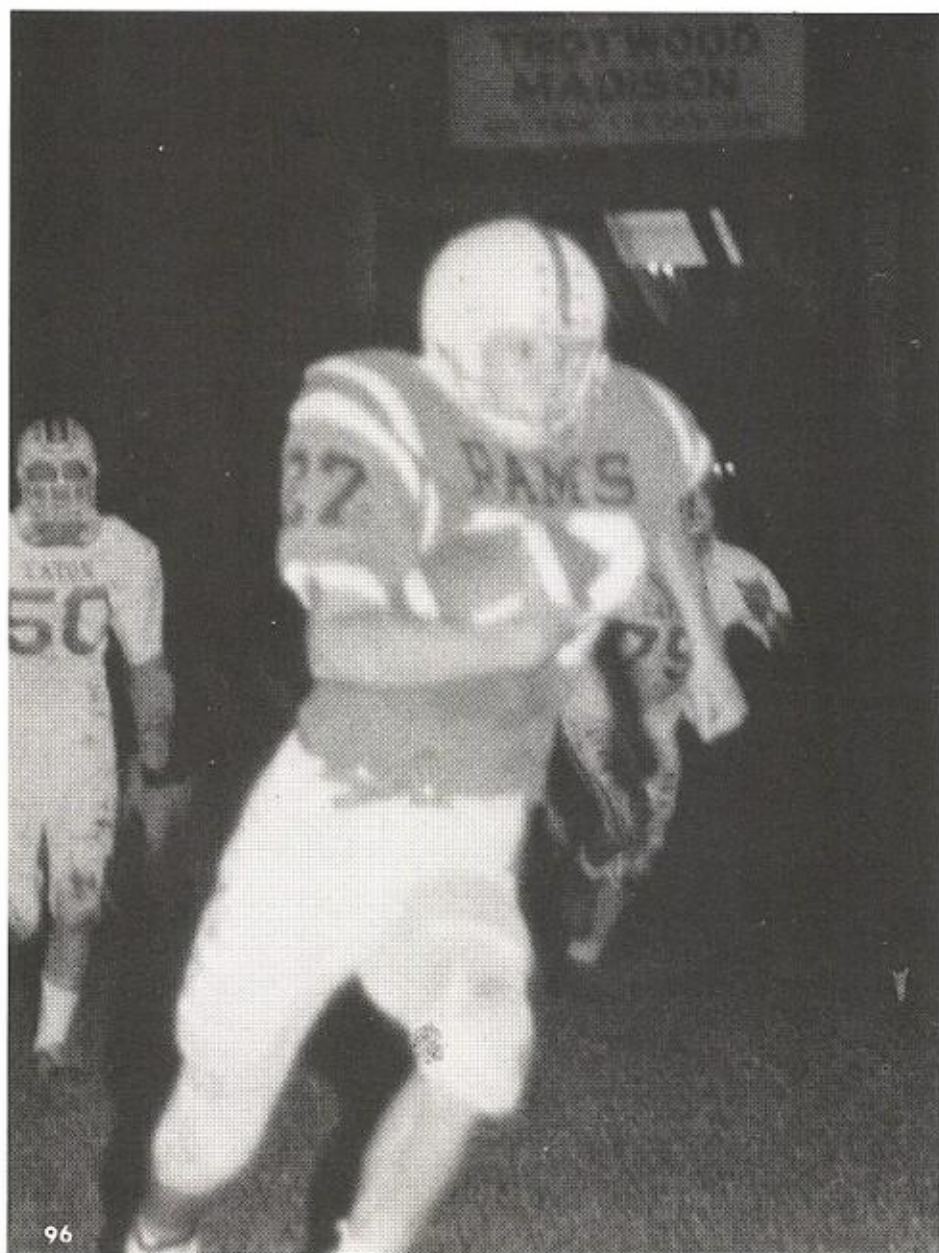

The Rams took on the state's number one team, the Massillon Tigers. Our opening game at Massillon was an unfortunate 71-0 loss. The Rams beat the Brookville Blue Devils in the exciting last few seconds of the game 25-22. The Rams, high after their exciting game against Brookville, set their eyes on Oakwood and a 2-0 league record, but a bad break in the last minute of play saw the Rams drop a fierce battle 33-14. The Ram Gridders, with revenge in their eyes, went out to beat a highly rated Tipp City squad and destroyed them 33-18.

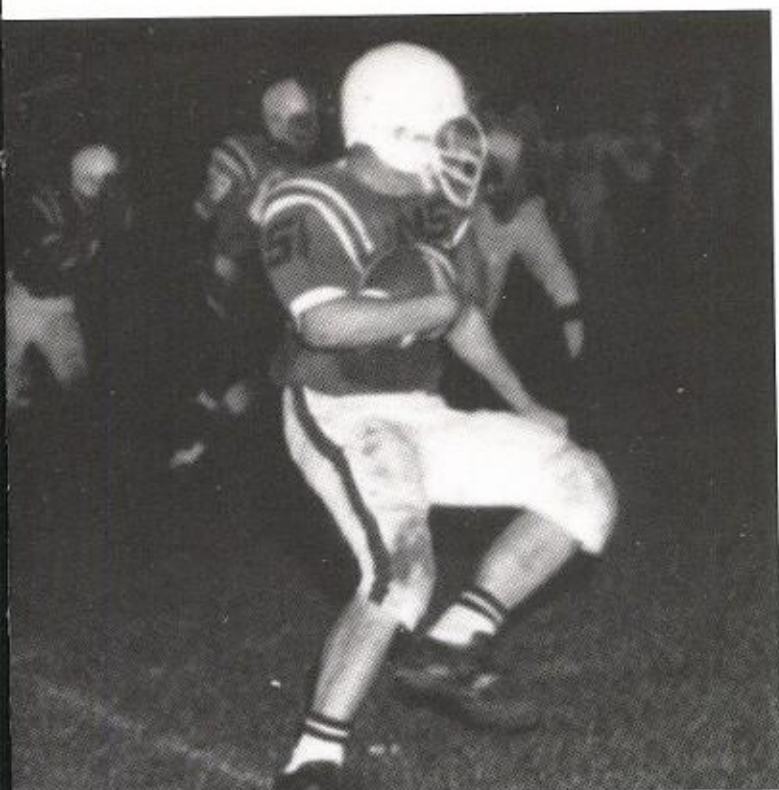

Allen Garber leaps through the victory hoop before the Oakwood Game.

Five Ram Gridders are discussing future action.

The Rams continued to pound S.W.B.L. foes with a 33-16 crushing of Northridge. The Rams then ventured to Vandalia to do battle with the Aviators but came home heartbroken with a 18-12 loss. The Rams then prepared to do battle with the Eaton Eagles in the homecoming clash and bounced back with a homecoming victory over Eaton 36-8. In their traditional game with rival Northmont, the Ram Gridders went out to upset the league leading Thunderbolts but were stunned by a 28-0 loss. After the loss to Northmont, the Rams wanted to do some scoring so they annihilated West Carrollton 40-0. The last game was with Milton-Union when the Rams were soundly beaten 54-26.

CLASS MOTTO

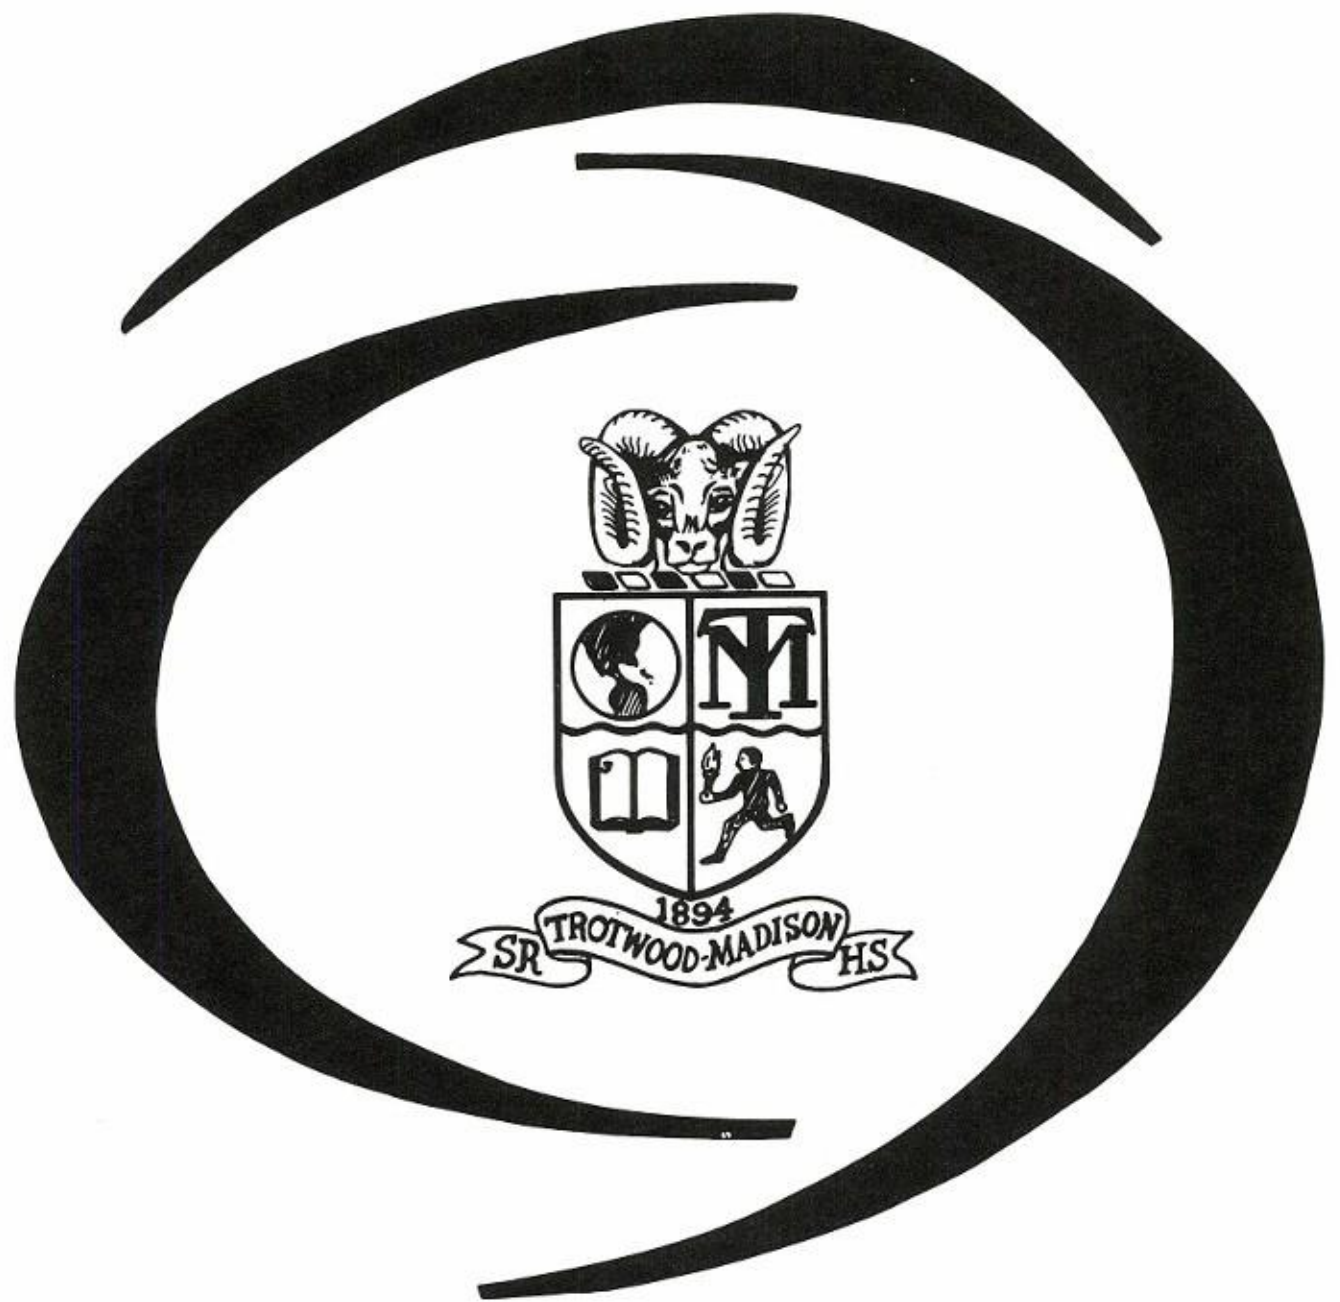

"To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heavens; a time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; a time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away; a time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace."

- Ecclesiastics 3:1-8

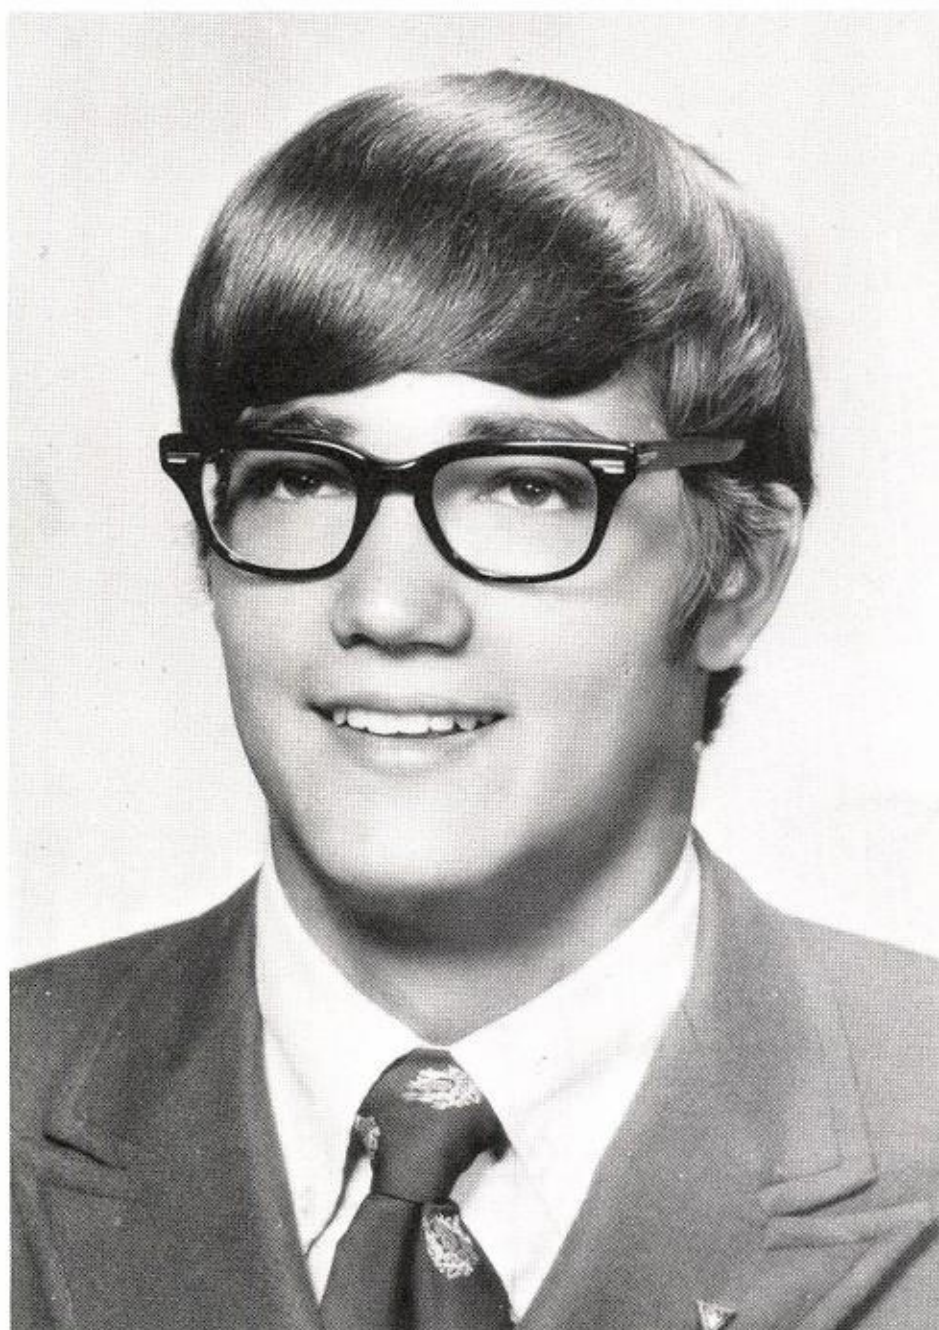

ADVERTISING

From the Class of 1971

Heart and soul mourn the passing of a young man

Who studied with us and laughed with us

A shy smile walking down the hall

A friendly wave

Serious as president of the band

Humorous as a Wiser Duck

Complained with the rest of us and worried over tests

Dreams and thoughts never hinting of the pain

A T-shirt, jeans, and tennis shoes -

Will you remember the face or the name - perhaps not

But no one will forget the passing of a smile or the plod of tennis shoes long absent

Silence serves the place of a comet

The passing of a young man is noted

This is Fred Albright in our memories forever.

T-M Rambler Staff, 1971
Trotwood, Ohio 45426

Congratulations, Staff, for adding the '71 Rambler to the traditionally long list of Trotwood-Madison High School's fine, cherished everlasting annuals.

We, The Trotwood-Madison Athletic Boosters Club, are indeed proud of the contribution that athletics has made toward our total school program. Through athletics, young men and women have been directly influenced to develop physically, mentally and emotionally.

T-M athletics has progressed to the present worthwhile program under the capable leadership of the Athletic Director and dedicated coaches. These ladies and gentlemen blend individual and team skills, strategy and psychology to achieve a successful goal emitting from each coach's unique emotions of challenge, failure, work and eventual successes. Our coaches show a great interest in the maturing process of participants, the ability to demonstrate what is taught, a clear communication with students, knowledge of the total activity, what it teaches those who are involved and an unequivocal belief in what our high school is and what it stands for today and on into the infinite future today.

Best Wishes,

Well, "Hi" to everyone who is reading this page today! I wanted to make everyone's yearbook one page longer this year, so I decided to purchase a page and write a whole many bunches of stuff on it along with drawings of my favorite characters. (However, since I've never pictured me purchasing a page in a picture book until now, I don't know what I shall write on it.) I guess I could mention a few words to some of the people who helped make my senior year something meaningful to me. To start with, thanks for all of the great (or shall I say FANTASTIC or "Far Out") times we have had young DAVID JAMES CRUM! I don't think I've shared as many laughs and cokes with anyone else as I have with you. I'd like to list all or even just some of the fun times we've shared; but I only bought one page so there won't be enough room. If they have meant just half as much to you as they have to me, hopefully you will remember them as I will. And DANA L. EARL, I hope your memory is good enough to remember the times we were together too. Oh! By the way, before I forget, I'd like to dedicate this page to JAMES MICHAEL "D." HEIT because it is typed in the shape of the state of Florida. Florida - Orange you glad? I really had a LOT (preferably a vacant lot in OHIO so we can fly kites on it) of fun times with you, Jimmy. And HENRY WARD BROOKS III, someday you will be able to open a bank from all of the trust you have loaned out. I will treasure your friendship for money years to come. DIANE A. BARR, I hope we will always be as close friends as we are today. And wherever you are JEFF PEACE, I want you to know you're the GREATEST, most considerate person I know. MICHAEL D. FLETCHER - "beep, beep." Jay Maybruck, Bit Butler, Larry Kramer, Mike (Fred) Updike, Dave Sonneborn, Mike (Barrel) Landis - zoo, Barry Dorfman, Sue Sartorius, Sue Heisey, Sheryl Murray, and Becky Hall ... each of you is special to me. Jack "doodle" Collins and Becki Szucs - you're both pals of mine. See you at MIAMI Dee Dee Wills! (not Miami, FLORIDA ...) Miami U in '72!!

This record of the 1970-71 school year has been accomplished after many hours of planning by the staff. As advisor, I am most grateful for the reliability of many on the staff, especially those who returned after graduation to complete the book.

Michele Ross deserves special accolades for her constant demand for perfection, her insistence that deadlines be met, and her ability to evaluate all problems and to arrive at balanced judgments. Michele has been an Editor-in-Chief nonpareil.
